

Hyde Bench

The beauty of the Hyde Range is its flexibility, as highlighted here by the Hyde Bench. This is a versatile and durable bench that can be adapted to the various requirements of clients. Simple and robust in design, it is available as a straight or curved bench, as well as a full 360 degree option.

This is a surface mounted bench, manufactured from treated timber slats on galvanised, powder coated 5mm mild steel box feet. The Hyde bench can be modified to suit user requirements making it a stunningly adaptable seating solution.
